BELL OAKS ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF COMPANY OFFICERS

ATLANTA – Apr. 1, 2008 – Bell Oaks, an Atlanta-based national executive search firm, is pleased to announce the appointment of officers to the positions of President and CEO, Treasurer and Secretary.

Randy Hain has been named president and chief executive officer; he has been with the firm eight years. Todd Warshaw, with Bell Oaks for 10 years, has been named treasurer and officer. Christen Sindone, also with the firm 10 years, has been named secretary and officer.

“To continue our trajectory of highly-successful business practices, it was important for us to develop an effective platform for ensuring a strong future for Bell Oaks,” said Price Harding, Chairman of Bell Oaks. “Randy, Todd and Christen—our most senior and tenured Partners, have been responsible for the firm’s most recent successes. More importantly, they are examples of Bell Oaks’ commitment to community involvement and are each fully dedicated to maximizing the value we bring to our clients and their companies.”

The team, led by Hain, is charged with identifying potential growth areas for the firm through acquisition and organic growth, forming strategic partnerships and aligning with like-minded organizations, and building on its company culture of trust and empowerment.
