

The Community Foundation
FOR GREATER ATLANTA

For Immediate Release

The Community Foundation for Greater Atlanta – North Fulton Fund
Announces Board Appointment

ATLANTA, July 1, 2008 – Randy Hain of Bell Oaks Executive Search has been elected to the board of advisors of the North Fulton Fund, a local fund of The Community Foundation for Greater Atlanta. The North Fulton Fund was established in 1996 to develop local philanthropy and respond to the needs of North Fulton County residents.

Hain (photo attached) is managing partner of Bell Oaks, an Atlanta-based national executive search firm specializing in identifying, attracting and hiring professionals to critical leadership positions with companies across the country. He also sits on the boards of Wilderness Works—a nonprofit group that serves the needs of inner-city youth through safe, supervised outdoor activities; and Veracore—a national coaching and executive leadership development firm. He is very active in promoting Autism awareness and helping special-needs children. Hain resides in Roswell.

About The Community Foundation

The Community Foundation for Greater Atlanta connects donors, nonprofits and community partners to make philanthropy happen. The Foundation works directly with donors and their families to explore their philanthropic passion; supports nonprofits in the 23-county service area through grants and guidance; collaborates with community leaders and other partners to create innovative solutions to tough issues and builds an endowment to benefit the Atlanta region today and for generations to come. Visit www.atlcf.org for more information.

###

Contact: Lisa B. Tilt, Full Tilt Consulting, LLC
404/388-7047, lisa@fulltiltconsulting.com